

ANDREW JAY GRAHAM, ESQ.

Mr. Graham co-founded Kramon & Graham, P.A. in 1975 after clerking for a federal judge, working two years at Shearman & Sterling in New York, and serving for three years as an Assistant U.S. Attorney in Maryland.

Mr. Graham has been included in The Best Lawyers in America for more than 10 years. That publication recognizes him in the areas of Bet-the-Company Litigation, White-Collar Criminal Defense, Commercial Litigation, and Alternative Dispute Resolution as one of the leading lawyers in Maryland. In a recent survey of his peers conducted by Baltimore Magazine, Mr. Graham was recognized as one of the 30 best Baltimore lawyers and one of the four best business litigators. Chambers USA rated Mr. Graham as one of the best commercial litigators in Maryland for 2004, 2005, 2006, and 2007. And Mr. Graham is listed in Maryland Super Lawyers 2007 as one of the State's top 10 attorneys.

Mr. Graham was the Maryland State Chairman of the American College of Trial Lawyers from 1996 to 1998. He was Chairman of the Ethics 2000 Committee, a committee of the Maryland State Bar Association, from 2001 to 2003, and a member of the committee appointed by the Maryland Court of Appeals to study and recommend changes to the Maryland Rules of Professional Conduct. He has held many offices and board and committee positions with the ABA, the FBA, and the Maryland and Baltimore City Bar Associations. Mr. Graham served on several Maryland and federal judicial selection committees and on the Maryland Judicial Selection Commission. He is a former President of the Baltimore Courthouse and Law Museum Foundation, and of the Maryland Chapter of the Federal Bar Association. He is a founding member of ADR Maryland, a non-profit forum for alternative dispute resolution. He is a permanent member of the Fourth Circuit Judicial Conference. He is currently the chairperson of the committee appointed by Maryland's federal court to study and recommend changes to that court's rules on attorneys' fees. Mr. Graham has been Chair of Maryland Legal Aid's Equal Justice Council from 2002 to date.

Mr. Graham is frequently invited to lecture on a wide variety of subjects before diverse audiences. He has authored numerous articles and presentations, such as "Basic Principles of Corporate Investigations," "Law Firm Break-Ups: The Need to Consider Divorce Before Marriage," "Repressed Memory or a Vivid Imagination: Are the Courts in Dangerous Waters?," "The Significance of Civility," and "Changes in Maryland's Rules of Professional Conduct on Horizon."

Principal
Kramon & Graham P.A.
1 South Street, Suite 2600
Baltimore, MD 21202-3281

agraham@kg-law.com
Phone: 410-752-6030
Fax: 410-539-1269

EDUCATION

Yale University, B.A. (1965)
New York University School of Law, J.D. (1968)

COURT ADMISSIONS

Maryland
District of Columbia
New York
United States District Court for the District of Maryland
United States District Court for the District of Columbia
United States District Court for the Eastern District of
New York
United States District Court for the Southern District of
New York
United States Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit
Supreme Court of the United States

BAR MEMBERSHIPS

Maryland State Bar Association
Bar Association of Baltimore City
American Bar Association