

SHEILA K. SACHS, ESQ.

Ms. Sachs has been a leading Maryland family law practitioner for over 35 years and has acted as mediator or arbitrator in many cases in addition to representing clients in mediation and arbitration.

Since joining Gordon, Feinblatt, Sheila Sachs has devoted a substantial part of her practice to the field of Family Law. She has served as Chair of the Family and Juvenile Law Committee of the Maryland State Bar Association and is a member of the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers. The practice includes litigation and negotiation of divorces, including the equitable distribution of marital property, alimony, custody, child support, and related proceedings, as well as drafting and negotiating of pre and post marital agreement. She mediates and arbitrates controversies in the family law area.

Ms. Sachs has been active in Bar Association activities and is a former President of the Bar Association of Baltimore City. In addition, Ms. Sachs has served on various boards, including the Baltimore City Board of School Commissioners, the Judicial Nominating Commission for Baltimore City, the Board of Trustees of Goucher College and presently serves on the Board of Managers of Haverford College. She was named a 2007 Family Law "Super Lawyer" by SuperLawyers Maryland and one of Maryland's Top 100 Women by The Daily Record for 1996. She was selected as one of Baltimore's thirty best lawyers in the November 1998 issue of Baltimore Magazine and has been recognized among the Best Lawyers in America since 1995.
